Schisler Nominated for Young Leader Award

Congratulations to Saints Peter and Paul High School sophomore Rebecca Schisler, who was nominated for the Susan B. Anthony Young Leader Award as an outstanding young woman who is leading the fight to protect the unborn and promote the cause for life in our community.

Rebecca was one of the student leaders who helped start the Pro-Life Group at Saints Peter and Paul High School and is also actively involved in the school's SADD Club. Marjorie Dannenfelser, the President of the Susan B.

Anthony List, stated the young leaders like Rebecca, "are not merely the future of the pro-life movement, but rather its present driving force."
