

PSA MINUTES

November 12, 2007

President, Nancy Lenkiewicz, opened the meeting with a prayer
Treasurer's report was read by Cathy Dowd.

NEW BUSINESS:

1. Yankee Candle Sale – Laurin Westerfield and Nicole Walker reported that the sale went very well. There was a big increase over last year's candle sale. Mrs. Westerfield offered to co-chair this sale again next year.
2. Sally Foster – Debbie Cornwell reported that sales of Sally Foster were going well and that money was still coming in from online sales.
3. Greenery Sale – Nancy Lenkiewicz reported that there was low participation for the greenery sale this year. The flyer did not go out as soon as she would have liked.
4. Catholic Schools Week – Catholic Schools Week will be in January. Volunteers will be needed at the book sale and in the cafeteria for the grandparents lunch.
5. Spirit Wear – Spirit wear will be on sale all this week in the cafeteria. Orders will be taken as well for items not in stock. The sale went very well today, the first day. Allison Murphy is the contact for high school spirit wear. Nancy Lenkiewicz is the contact for the elementary school.
6. Committees – Nancy Lenkiewicz reported on all committee chairs.
  - A. Magazine Drive – The magazine sale was up 12% over last year.
  - B. Tupperware Sale – Tricia Willis does not have a firm date yet. It will be sometime in February.
  - C. Family Fun Night – Colleen Gabler and Jackie Sadler plan to show two movies.
  - D. Casino night – Rob Lacaze will inform Nancy Lenkiewicz about future meeting dates and committees.
7. Elementary School Update – Mrs. Webster started by thanking all the parents for helping with the many fundraisers. The support has been great. Report cards will be a week late coming out, because power school had a delay. They will be out December 12th. Fifth grade D.A.R.E. will be starting November 14. There will be a middle school play in March. The play is Annie, Jr. and it will be directed by Kimberly Stevens. This year, the Christmas concert will be professionally videotaped. DVD's will be on sale for $20.00. Pre-orders are being taken until December 9th. They will have two cameras, one up close and one from a distance. Maria Douglas helped put this in place for our school.

The meeting was adjourned by Mrs. Lenkiewicz. The next PSA meeting will be January 14, 2008 at 2:00 p.m.
